

General Employee Training Center

► General Introduction

The purpose is to offer job applicants systematic career development and practical help through offering special credits in related courses. It is also to develop job applicants' abilities to prepare for the economic environment, changes in business and the job market necessary for getting a job.

► Education Objectives

The basic objective is to offer job applicants the opportunity for education and internships to develop their expertise, abilities and job adaptability.

► Course Descriptions

Category	Semester	Years	Code	Courses	Credit	Hours		Note
						Theory	Practice
Elective courses	1,2		02790	Experience of Job for Students	1
	summer intersession, winter intersession		02967	Medium Business Job Training	2		4
	1	3,4	03153	Campus Life and Career Development	2	2
	2	3,4	03154	Employment & Course	2	2
	summer intersession, winter intersession	3,4	03156	Domestic Internship I	3
	summer intersession, winter intersession	3,4	03157	Domestic Internship II	6
	1,2	4	03158	Domestic Internship III	18
	summer intersession, winter intersession	3,4	03159	Overseas Internship I	3
	summer intersession, winter intersession	3,4	03160	Overseas Internship II	6
	1,2	4	03161	Overseas Internship III	18

▶ 02790 Experience of Job for Students

This course is to give students on the job experience.

▶ 02967 Medium Business Job Training

This course is to help students by offering on the job experience.

▶ 03153 Campus Life and Career Development

This course is to give students practical help through providing a special course in collecting job related information, completing official forms and developing interview skills; and developing the necessary on the job mental attitude.

▶ 03154 Employment & Course

This course is to give students practical help through providing a special course in collecting job related information, completing official forms and developing interview skills; and developing the necessary on the job mental attitude.

▶ 03156 Domestic Internship I

This course is to master expert knowledge through field education and practice during vacation periods at domestic corporations, government agencies or non-governmental agencies which have entered into an agreement with this university.

▶ 03157 Domestic Internship II

This course is to master expert knowledge through field education and practice during vacation periods at domestic corporations, government agencies or non-governmental agencies which have entered into an agreement with this university.

▶ 03158 Domestic Internship III

This course is to master expert knowledge through field education and practice during vacation periods and at least one semester at domestic corporations, government agencies or non-governmental agencies which have entered into an agreement with this university.

▶ 03159 Overseas Internship I

This course is to master expert knowledge through field education and practice during vacation periods at international corporations, government agencies or non-governmental agencies which have entered into an agreement with this university.

▶ 03160 Overseas Internship II

This course is to master expert knowledge through field education and practice during vacation periods at international corporations, government agencies or non-governmental agencies which have entered into an agreement with this university.

▶ 03161 Overseas Internship III

This course is to master expert knowledge through field education and practice during vacation periods and at least one semester at international corporations, government agencies or non-governmental agencies which have entered into an agreement with this university.